LUSITANIA FLAG INCIDENT UNDER CONSIDERATION

UNDER KNIFE, BUT WILL BE WELL SOON

NOT ACTION OF BRITISH GOVERNMENT

London, Feb. 8.—Premier Asquith speaking in the House of Commons today said that British casualties in all ranks in the western arena of the war, from the beginning of hostilities to Feb. 4, amounted to approximately 104,000 men. This includes killed, wounded and missing.

CASUALTIES OF BRITISH PUT AT 104,000

DACIA READY FOR VOYAGE

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 8.—The steamer Dacia was ready today to start on her long heralded voyage to Rotterdam with cotton from Galveston to Bremen. Captain McDonald took out his clearance papers early today. Great Britain, questioning the validity of the transfer of the Dacia from German to American registry, has given notice she will seize the ship and pay for the cargo. The case probably will be tried out in a prize court.

One British cruiser has been in this vicinity for some time.

PASSENGERS SHAKEN UP

Kent, Feb. 8.—A score or more of passengers were badly shaken up today when three cars of a Wheeling and Lake Erie passenger train jumped the track at Monroe Station, eight miles north of here. The train, due in Cleveland at 10:30 a. m., was slowing down for the station when the accident happened. A defective switch is said to have been the cause.

Mr. Page has not communicated with the foreign office concerning the incident and as yet no official communication concerning the use of the American flag by a British vessel have passed between the American and British governments.

As the Lusitania carried 340 cabin passengers, many of them prominent Americans who have a wide acquaintance in London; the news of the flag incident spread rapidly in the hotels and clubs until it has become almost the sole topic of conversation.

The British government stoutly maintains that the captain of the Lusitania was not ordered by admirers of Billie Burke will be shocked to learn that she is rapidly recovering from the operation which she was compelled to undergo in New York last week. Miss Burke is one of the most popular stars in America. She is booked to play in the Pacific coast in "Jerry" soon.

INVESTIGATE REPORT THAT TWO AGED MEN WERE BURIED ALIVE

HISTORIC MONASTERY DAMAGED

Naples, Feb. 8.—It was learned yesterday that the historic monastery by the emperor to the monastery of Monte Cassino, near this city, where St. Benedict in 529 A. D. founded the religious order bearing his name, was damaged heavily by the recent earthquake. The damage is almost at the point of collapse. In Emperor William's story that eight feeble inmates of the German Odd Fellows' home here had been put to death because they were aged and required much attention, was added today the suggestion that two other inmates might have been buried alive while still under the influence of an anesthetic. It was believed that at least two of the bodies would be exhumed. The coroner's jury today began an investigation of this suggestion.

There was little tangible for him to work on except reports found in the fears of the present inmates with whom he held a long talk yesterday.

The New York undertakers who took charge of the bodies were to be questioned as to what steps they had taken to make sure that life was extinct before burial.

Henry Blum, an embalmer questioned today by the coroner's jury, confirmed a statement imputed to Fred Mors, a former burin in relation to the death of Henry Horn, Dec. 20. Blum told the coroner's jury, it was said, that when he took charge of Horn's body he noticed a burn on the mouth and asked Mors about it and Mors explained it had been made by a cloth saturated with anesthetic tied about the dead man's face to hold his mouth shut.

The bodies of all the eight inmates who Mors said were put to death were embalmed before burial, Blum said.

The resolution would direct the president of the United States to convey to all neutral nations the desirability of a conference to bring about the cessation of European hostilities; to extend offers of mediation to warring nations; to consider rules for the general limitation of armaments; rules for prohibition of exportation of munitions of war; the creation of a federation of neutral nations to provide for neutrality of ocean trade routes; consideration of the rights of neutral commerce and all other matters that may tend to establish permanent world peace.

No attempt was made by the president to appoint commissioners of the United States, at such conference, whether called by this country or any other nation. The resolution was received by unanimous consent and allowed to lie on the table for future consideration.

POPE'S PEACE PRAYER READ

London, Feb. 8.—The churches of Antwerp, Brussels and Malines were crowded yesterday at the services at which Pope Benedict's prayer for peace was read. Cardinal Mercier assisted in the services.

The president would be empowered to appoint commissioners of the United States, at such conference, whether called by this country or any other nation. The resolution was received by unanimous consent and allowed to lie on the table for future consideration.

STORES FORGET PAPA, BUT SHE DOESN'T

This little girl looked in all the stores for a valentine to send papa. She couldn't find any. Dealers told her paper don't have any "sentiment" whatever that may mean. She thinks her has. So she's going to tell him next Sunday that she herself is his valentine. To use her own words:

"I think I'm papa's valentine. At least I know that he is mine. I'm mother's, too—small maid like me. Are family valentines, you see."

MEXICAN SITUATION AGAIN GROWS SERIOUS

Washington, Feb. 8.—Zapatista forces are gradually closing in on Mexico City again, today's official dispatches report, and the apprehension is daily growing more acute over conditions generally.

Practically all the foreign diplomatic representatives there have asked their home governments for instructions as to what they should do in certain contingencies and are hoping to be permitted to use their discretion as to abandon ing their legations.

Demonstrations continue by the populace, which has been affected by the nullification by Carranza authorities of paper currency issued by previous administrations and the scarcity of food is causing grave anxiety.

TREMENDOUS FIGHT IN THE EAST ATTRACTS ALL WAR INTEREST

BRITISH GOVERNMENT ASKS FOR UNLIMITED WAR FUND

London, Feb. 8.—For the first time in 200 years the British government today invited the House of Commons to give it a blank check for army purposes. This is virtually the effect of a new precedent, set up by the introduction of the army estimates without details and without the aggregates of the expenditures and when parliament has voted the nominal sum of 1,000 pounds sterling under each of the fifteen groups of expenditures it will have voted supplies without limit for an army of 3,000,000 men to be accounted for when the war is over.

London, Feb. 8.—In the realm of military interests all eyes today are turned toward the eastern battle front. Here the tremendous efforts of both sides have not as yet produced any results worthy to be called decisive.

The Russian forces, which have been giving ground before the fierce attacks of the reinforced Austro-German army in the Carpathian passes apparently have checked; the onward rush of the defenders of Hungary, but in Poland, in front of Warsaw, the opponents appear still to be hammering each other's lines with a ferocity which recalls the first German invasion of Poland.

In spite of the desperate nature of the fighting in front of Warsaw, it is generally believed in England that the most critical action is developing in the Carpathians, where the reported Russian reverse will compromise the new campaign opening against Hungary.

Except for several minor attacks of the Germans on Newport, the western line of battle evidently has enjoyed a quiet weekend. Air and sea operations also have been suspended during the past few days. London not even being thrilled by the usual Sunday rumors that Zepelins were en route to the British capital. Also there has been complete absence of any naval news.

Big Plant Resumes

Elizabeth, N. J., Feb. 8.—The assembling department, one of the largest at the Singer Sewing Machine works, has announced a return of all men on a full time schedule, beginning today. At the office of the management, it was said that the entire plant will be back on the old schedule within another month.

Early last fall about fifty percent of the 9,000 employed there were laid off.

WILL NAME NEW OIL INSPECTOR

Columbus, Feb. 8.—Governor Willis said today that he will appoint a state inspector of oils to succeed William F. Mason, of Hamilton, Butler county soon. The salary is $3500 but it is said the legislative salaries investigation committee will reduce this to $2,000.

Akron, Feb. 8.—Delegates to the state convention of the Ohio Master Plumbers began arriving here today. The convention opens tonight.

FUND FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Solicitation of the $500,000 fund to provide work for Chicago's unemployed began today under the direction of Prof. Charles R. Henderson of the University of Chicago, chairman of the Municipal Industrial commission. The fund is being raised as a result of an appeal made by Mayor Harrison to citizens on Saturday.

Berlin, Feb. 8.—(By Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—United States military attaches are reported to have arrived at Czernow to observe army operations now in progress.

WOMEN TAKE PART IN N. J. STRIKE RIOTING

Roosevelt, N. J., Feb. 8.—A crowd of angry women stormed the gates of the Liebig and Williams and Clark Fertilizer plants here today, where 10 strikers were shot by deputy sheriffs, Jan. 19 and administered a thorough beating to Elmer Osborne, chief engineer at the Liebig works and Frank Davis, a clerk.

Both men were rescued by special policemen, sworn in yesterday. The trouble started when some of the men attempted to go to work for $1.60 a day. This was the wage they received at the time of the strike, the previous wage having been $2.00 a day. The women jeered and hooted the men going to work this morning and when Osborne and Davis appeared attacked them. One man among the crowd of women was arrested.

GIRLS MAKE BANDAGES

New York, Feb. 8.—Three hundred girls were put to work today by the Salvation Army making bandages and surgical dressings for use in Europe.

LIVED IN RUINS OF QUAKE FOR 25 DAYS

Rome, Feb. 8.—Few men have lived to tell a stranger tale than that of Michael Cairolo, who was extricated from the earthquake ruins at Paterno yesterday after having been imprisoned for twenty-five days without food. Cairolo is recovering from the effects of his experience which he was able to describe today.

"When the earthquake occurred," he said, "I attempted to escape but found myself blocked within a stable by the ruins. Beneath the stable the cellar was excavated by the rocks. I made my way into this excavation and so avoided being crushed to death. From the moment I entered the cellar, I saw no more light and I believed I had become blind, as my mind could not conceive that the ruins covered the cellar so completely as to prevent a single ray of light from penetrating through. For a long time, I cannot say how long, my which water collected and I was despair increased until it became almost frenzied. I shouted with to exist—how long I know not as all my strength until I fell into yesterday I heard voices above me. One said: 'All are dead.' Another answered: 'Quite so, but let's recover what we can of our property.'

"I aroused myself to make a supreme effort and screamed: 'I am alive here in the cellar. Michael Cairolo.' Those above me thought I was ghost but I continued my cries and convinced them that a living man was imprisoned. They came to my rescue and in about three hours I was free."

Most folks are proud to have a poet in th' family, whether they admit it openly or not, and I've just been lookin' up my family record to see if I'm my relation to the poetical goat in th' Mayville Ledger. He's some poet even if he does write chiefly with his scissors. Here's one of his efforts: "Jab had his troubles, yes indeed; that's what he was created for. But still he never had to read all about th' foreign war." I'm proud to greet that goat as a brother. Here's th' weather—Ohio—Fair tonight and Tuesday.

Kentucky—Generally fair tonight and Tuesday. Slowly rising temperatures Tuesday. West Virginia—Fair tonight and Tuesday.

SENATE READY TO TAKE UP PROPOSED LIQUOR MEASURES

Columbus, Feb. 8.—The administration's attitude on the knotty problem of decentralizing the state liquor licensing system of the state was about to be disclosed in the bill ready for introduction in the senate late today by Senator McDermott of Trimble.

The bill provides, it was said, for retention of state supervision of the license system by a department whose principal duties will be to detect violations of the law.

In licensing districts containing two or more counties, one license official will be named in each county. When only one county comprises the district two license officials will be named. It is thought.

Governor Willis said today he had not seen the bill and does not know its provisions. He added:

"I have talked to Senator McDermott a great deal about the measure, however, and he knows my views, I think. I do not know whether in drafting the bill he chose to agree with me."

Legislative leaders agreed that the bill represents in most particulars the governor's attitude on the question of decentralizing the license system. It was said he favored making the common pleas court the licensing authority in each county, however, but this was not provided in the bill.

It was said in the legislative chambers today the bill contains no provision for reducing the number of saloons, as the anti-liquor interests of the state demand.

It is expected that the senate license bill will be taken up this week by the temperance committee of which Senator McDermott is chairman, and that it will be rushed through as soon as possible to the house. Here three liquor decentralizing bills are pending.

Representatives Have
Number of Measures

That of Representative Graham, of Licking county, provides that county executive committees of each of the two dominant parties shall recommend a man for appointment on the county licensing board and that he shall be appointed by the state board.

Representative Purdum, of Ross, presented another bill reducing the number of saloons by two-thirds. The bill of Representative Fleming, of Mahoning, which heretofore has been considered as representing most accurately the views of the administration, provides for a state department of inspection and a county board to issue licenses composed of the prosecutor, recorder and clerk.

A new taxation bill was being drafted today, which it was said, would be an administration measure. It will provide for a large degree of supervision by the state tax commission of local assessors, it is reported in legislative circles.

A new bill to decentralize the state agricultural commission is being prepared and will replace the measure introduced by Representative Smith of Morgan, on which public hearing was held last week, according to legislative leaders.

No Indication Of Washington Action

Washington, Feb. 8.—The alleged use of the American flag by the Lusitania on entering Liverpool harbor Saturday to avoid a German submarine was discussed with interest in official and diplomatic quarters here today, but there was no indication of what developments might result.

Naval officers recalled that naval regulations permit a warship to fly another flag than its own but specifically provide it must be hoisted down and the ship's own flag must be hoisted before a shot is fired. There are many incidents in naval history where that has been done. The latest being the German sea raider Bremen which hoisted the Japanese flag just before sinking during raid at Penang.

Experts in naval procedure recalled no case, however, where a merchantman was involved in time of war.

Under Consideration
Says Secretary Bryan

Washington, Feb. 8.—Under consideration was Secretary Bryan's response to questions on the purpose of the state department in regard to both the Lusitania incident and the German declaration of a war zone around the British Isles. There are some indications that the department is contemplating the treatment of both subjects in one general note or statement similar to Secretary Bryan's recent letter to Senator Stone.

Mounted Eagles On Display In Bank

An unusually fine specimen of an American eagle mounted with a rustic background and enclosed in a fine oval shaped and nicely framed glass case was presented to the directors of the First National bank by Attorney Arthur H. Bannon, Monday. The eagle was killed by Mr. Bannon during one of his Rocky Mountain hunts and was mounted by a St. Louis taxidermist. It will be given a conspicuous place in the bank lobby.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season took place Friday night at the St. John's College when the girls of the Debating Society banqueted their opponents in honor of their victory recently won in a debate in Womans' Suffrage. The color scheme, yellow and white, was carried out in every detail. Strands of yellow and white crepe paper formed arches over the chandeliers. A large flower basket filled with yellow chrysanthemums formed the center piece of the table and from this hung strands of yellow and white satin ribbon to smaller baskets filled with fruit on either end of the table. Dainty place cards with the names of the guests printed on them marked their places at the table. The dinner was served in three courses by Misses Margaret and Agnes Cassidy, and Grace Lang. Later many games were played and dancing and Victrola music were enjoyed. Misses Mary Stokes and Mayne Foster presided at the punch bowl where Women's Suffrage punch was served during the dancing. The favors which were red cupids for the girls, and arrows for the boys were pinned on each guest as they entered the room by Misses Elma Frantz, Catherine Cassidy, Hortense Brawley, and Matilda Schroeder. Those enjoying this social affair were Father McHugh, the Sisters of Holy Redeemer School and Misses Catherine Cassidy, Mayne Foster, Mary Stokes, Elma Frantz, Katherine Reinhardt, Hortense Brawley, Helen Conroy, Janette Reilly, Matilda Schroeder and Misses Lawrence Born, Frederic Herken, Robert McNamara, William Emmett, William Dadsky, Edward Rooney, Hobart Lawson, Edward Branner and Edward Debo.

WOMAN WHO IS ACCUSED OF INCENDIARISM IS TOO ILL TO FACE THE CHARGE

Unable to appear in police court for a hearing Monday morning because of illness, the preliminary hearings of Mrs. Pete Cassidy and daughter, Miss Inn, who are charged with setting fire to their home to collect $700 insurance, was deferred Monday. Mrs. Cassidy was taken quite ill Monday morning and required the services of a physician. Affidavits charging Mrs. Cassidy and daughter with maliciously setting fire to their home were sworn in at Mayor Erick's court Monday morning by Fire Marshal Ed Donovan.

Mr. Donovan was in conference with Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Mickelthwait this morning and promised Mr. Donovan that he would lay the Cassidy charges before the grand jury Tuesday.

The case against the daughter was transferred to the juvenile court, where a complaint has been lodged against her, charging her with incorrigibility. She will have a hearing before Juvenile Judge Beatty some time Tuesday.

After thoroughly inspecting the Cassidy home, a two-story frame structure at 822 Murray street, Deputy Fire Marshals Edward Donovan and Charles Miller were convinced that the fire was of incendiary origin and that the flames could not have started from one room to another, as Mrs. Cassidy first stated, because the woodwork and wallpaper in each room were not scathed, they succeeded in learning Saturday afternoon that Mrs. Cassidy and four daughters, Inn, Lila, Lillian and Ruby had gone to the home of Mrs. Cassidy's oldest daughter, Mrs. Maud Calvert, of 192 Rhodes Avenue, New Boston. Confronted with the real facts in the case, Mrs. Cassidy and daughter Inn showed signs of weakening when the fire marshals began to weave a chain of evidence around them, but for quite a while they stoutly denied their innocence and insisted that they had no idea how the fire started. But the officials were persistent, and, aided by a tip given them earlier in the day by Ollie Cassidy, aged 17, Donovan and Miller "swatted" Mrs. Cassidy and daughter for almost an hour before they finally broke down and admitted they set fire to the Davenport port in the front room down-stairs and to the three beds upstairs. It was then that Mrs. Cassidy was literally torn from the side of her three-year-old daughter, Ruby, and accompanied by her daughter Inn, they were brought to this city by Deputy Fire Marshals Donovan and Miller.

Sheriff Pete Smith and Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Mickelthwait were summoned to the Washington Hotel, as Mrs. Cassidy and daughter had agreed to make a clean breast of what had transpired and how they had planned the fire in the hopes of getting the $700 insurance carried on their household effects. In the presence of the deputy fire marshals, Sheriff Smith, Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Mickelthwait, Court Stenographer Mrs. Kate Walsh, who took down the statements made by Mrs. Cassidy and daughter and Peter Cassidy, a calm, self-controlled manner, told how they had procured five cents worth of gasoline on Wednesday and how they had insisted on Ollie Cassidy going to a picture show on Thursday night so they could carry out their incendiary designs.

Claiming that she was hard over heels in debt and that collectors had made life miserable for her the past two months, Mrs. Cassidy told the officials that she and her daughter fired their home in order that they could collect the $700 insurance, pay their debts and move to another place. Mrs. Cassidy, when closely questioned, admitted that she and her daughter originated the plan two weeks ago and that they talked about it almost every day, the officials say. Going to a Gallia street grocery Wednesday Inn Cassidy purchased the gasoline which she used on the beds, and applied it, mated, according to her own admissions, and statements of a corroborative nature made by her mother, Mrs. Cassidy, the officials felt certain that at their meeting held in the Washington Hotel, where the mother and daughter, it is alleged, confessed that she set fire to the Davenport down stairs, while her daughter applied the match to the beds, which had been sprinkled with gasoline to aid the progress of the flames. Mrs. Cassidy told the officials that she thought the flames would spread so quickly from one room to another that all traces of suspicion would be safely covered up.

The fact that Ollie Cassidy was not in on the plot and that he arrived home from a picture show "too soon," was all that kept Mrs. Cassidy and daughter from successfully carrying out their money-making scheme, it is claimed. When Ollie entered the sitting room he smelled smoke and ran to the East door, sore feet, burning feet, aching feet, smelly feet, tired feet, tired feet.

AN OLD COPY OF THE TIMES.

We received Saturday from C. M. Emory, of Stockdale, a copy of the Portsmouth Times, of November 1st, 1862, which was found among the effects of L. J. Dewey, of Stockdale, who died recently at the advanced age of 83 years. It is an interesting old paper, full of the passions and prejudices of that period. Scioto county had gone Democratic in the fall elections and The Times quotes approvingly an editorial from a Hillsboro paper congratulating it upon the result. The Hillsboro man said the leaders of the Republican party in Scioto were "dead and damned as they should be and may the Lord have mercy on their souls. They are a precious set of scoundrels."

In one corner of the paper is a department headed "Facilities for Travel". It tells that the mail and express train on the Scioto & Hocking will leave each morning at 6 for Hamden, Marietta and Chillicothe. Accommodation at 2:10 p.m. for Jackson and Hamden. The stage coach for Waverly, Chillicothe, Circleville and Columbus leaves every morning at 5 o'clock from the Biggs House corner. The mail packet Boston leaves with mail and express for Cincinnati and way points every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 11 a.m.

One of the advertisements was an announcement that Horace Lent and Horace L. Chapman had dissolved partnership in the lumber business and that Mr. Lent would continue the business. Mr. Chapman is now living at Columbus. In the same paper is Mr. Chapman's announcement that he is a notary public and will draw deeds, mortgages, mechanics liens, etc., neatly and with dispatch and that he has taken desk room with Moore & Johnson, near the post office on Second street.

In another advertisement C. Ludgate announces that he is a fashionable barber and hair dresser who will wait on ladies at their homes and who always carries a full line of hair tonics, dyes, oils, etc.

Comment is also made that apples are for sale at 50 cents a barrel and that potatoes can be had for One Dollar per barrel. Eggs are 8 cents a dozen, sugar 12 and 14 cents a pound, wheat $1 and $1.10, corn 38 and 40 cents a bushel, coffee 28 cents and salt $4 a barrel. Coal was 12 to 16 cents a bushel delivered, butter 15 and 20 cents, beef and pork each $3 per hundred.

IS SLATED FOR A JOB.

By the grapevine wireless route comes the news from Columbus that former Sheriff John Eckhart is slated to be deputy warden of the Ohio penitentiary when that institution is decentralized by Governor Willis for the purpose of ousting Warden Thomas and his assistants out of their jobs. It's about time that somebody down here landed a job or the G. O. P. leaders will bust a hamstring. Up to date Pike county, and Democratic at that, has landed all the places given out in the Sixth district.

THE FLOWER SEED HABIT.

Some kind congressman sent a bag of flower seeds to the editor of the Huntington Herald-Dispatch and the recipient immediately set up a loud plea for somebody to give him a garden in which to plant the seeds. And aint the flower seed habit, he laid this to say:

"How fares the virtuous householder? How is it with the beloved constituent. Is he provided, or unprovided? Is he deemed worthy, or unworthy? Is he remembered, or unremembered? Has he wherewithal to sow, or doth he lack? Is the joy of the season at his feet, or is it far off? These questions pertain. They are attached, as it were. The hour of the distribution of congressional garden seeds is at hand. Crisp, rattling packages bearing the stenciled signature of a senator of the United States have come to us. Our heart throbs with the delight of expediency. Appreciation beaus in the editorial countenance. Seeds, seeds, everywhere, but not a garden in which to plant 'em. But it's fine to be remembered. And we can dream. Yea verily. In ephemeral vestments, borne on the wings of fancy, we can trend elysian realms, calm and peaceful as pre-republican Eden, marking pathways bordered by freshly blooming beds of sweet peas, dahlias, japonicas, begonias, nasturtiums, hollyhocks, sun flowers, honey suckles and wild thyme. And what matter if we wake to find but a few packages of unquenched and unromantic seeds? A dream of beauty is a vision and a state of mind. We will still have had our dream. For which, senator, our thanks."

POLLY AND HER PALS

IN POLLY'S ROLE DELICIA LANDS A HIT.

To a Future Son-in-Law

You're comin' into this family in another month or so, An' I like your looks an' I like your style, an' I'm glad that you're her beau; But I wasn't much fit for talkin' the night when you came to me. An' asked if you two could marry, a fact you could plainly see.

Now I've done some real hard thinkin' since then, an' I want to say:

A few of the thoughts that a Father thinks when he's givin' his girl away.

Square in your eyes I'm lookin' we're talkin' as man to man, I'm trustin' you with the greatest trust that ever a mortal can.

She is the babe I've cherished, the girl that I've guarded long,

An' I've kept her, winter an' summer, from trouble an' won an' wrong;

An' never a tear has wet her eyes, but what I have brushed it back,

An' never a burden's come her way, but what I have borne the pack.

Now this is the post of honor you've asked, an' I've given you,

An' I'm tellin' you what its duties are, an' what you will have to do.

I don't care a thing for money, an' I never shall ask for fame,

For all the luxuries man can give won't pay for a tainted name.

Arm in arm in the sunshine, an' arm in arm in the rain,

is the way you two must travel, an' share in each other's pain.

Now we protest. No Gentleman Would Go Odorless to a Dance.

A Handy Cow For Any Farm

For sale—Good cow giving milk, also hay.—Ad. in Sturgis (Mich.) Times-Democrat.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell you that darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Danced On New Boat

Portsmouth people formed their first acquaintance with the "Hoover Smith," the elegant new pleasure steamer, Saturday evening at the local wharf. The boat arrived at the local landing late Saturday afternoon with a pleasure party en route from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, and stopped over night, leaving Sunday morning.

The younger people spent a pleasant evening dancing in the large ball room, while scores of others were piloted all over the boat by the men in charge.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Look years younger! Try Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur and nobody will know.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell you that darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

THE OLD MADE NEW

There must be hundreds of people in this city with collections of discarded jewelry not quite good enough to use, and not quite bad enough to throw away. So it's just laid aside, gathering dust, and giving more trouble than it seems to be worth. Bring it down, and let us see what we can do with it. It will cost you nothing to find out. We will sketch up a suggestion for remodeling to submit to you, tell you the cost and advise you frankly. At the same time you might bring in your good jewelry—bring as much as you like, and we will clean it for you, making it look like new, free of charge.

BOY SCOUTS FILLED THE PULPITS OF LOCAL CHURCHES

CLIMAX OF DAY CAME IN A GREAT MEETING AT TRINITY CHURCH

"Boy's Day" which was celebrated in the city Sunday was a grand success, and hundreds of new friends were won to the Boy Scout Movement by the splendid speeches made by the boys, and the great rally at Trinity church in the evening. There was not a single hitch in the entire day's program, and all the boys who took part covered themselves with glory as they appealed to large congregations to help the boy in his effort to live a clean life and become a useful citizen.

The climax of the day's program came at the big boys' rally at Trinity church in the evening when hundreds of scouts assembled to hear Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker's masterful address on Lincoln. A big reservation in the commodious church was made for the scouts but they soon filled that to overflowing, and extra seats had to be provided. The main auditorium was quickly filled with friends and parents of the scouts, and then the Sunday school room was thrown open, and still the crowds kept coming, who took seats in the gallery. It was said by many to be the biggest crowd ever assembled in Trinity church. The hundreds of youthful faces in front of him, and the immense audience was a great inspiration to the speaker of the evening and in the most choice language, yet in terms which appealed to even the youngest boy Rev. Strecker told the story of Lincoln in a manner which captivated his entire audience, and held them spell bound throughout the hour and half of the service. His subject was "Lincoln the Great Scout." He showed how Lincoln had lived up to every point of the Boy Scout Law. Honor, kindness, loyalty, friendship, cheerfulness, obedience, usefulness, thrift, chivalry, bravery and reverence. He emphasized in a forceful manner each point making an application which in hand to help every boy who heard him. His closing illustration of Lincoln's love and reverence.

I WAS RUN DOWN, NERVOUS AND WEAK

Cause? Chronic Cough—A Friend Advised Me to Take Vinol—I Did—it Made Me Well and Strong.

Jennings, La.—"I was run-down, nervous, weak, dizzy, and tired all the time as a result of a chronic cough which kept me awake nights for months. I have four in my family, and I was not able to do my daily housework. All the different medicines I had taken failed to do any good until a friend told me about Vinol. I did not feel well within a month I felt so well and strong I could do my own housework. I would advise all weak women to take Vinol."—Mrs. A. Frazee, Jennings, La.

Why will women in this vicinity continue to drag along in dry and dusty air, all run-down, pale, thin, nervous, weak and all tired out when we are continually publishing letters from hundreds of reliable women which prove how Vinol overcomes such conditions and creates strength.

We ask every weak, nervous, run-down man or woman to come to our store and get a bottle of Vinol, our delicious cold liver and iron tonic, without oil, and if it fails to help you, we will return your money.

Friends, always buy Vinol, it is the best medicine for the cure of chronic coughs.

Judge Beatty Pays Scouts Fine Tribute

Judge Beatty's statement which was read by every boy speaker Sunday, is as follows: Mr. E. F. Ridout, Portsmouth, Ohio.

My Dear Sir:—I take this opportunity to compliment and congratulate you, Mr. Kinsey, and others who have taken the lead in the Boy Scout Movement in this city and county, on the great good you have accomplished in this great work. I must say that I am greatly but most happily surprised at the great progress that has been made in the betterment of conditions here since the Boy Scout Movement was inaugurated in this community.

For the many mothers who appealed to him during the dark days of the Civil War; the emphasis he placed on the deep gratitude one owed his mother was touching to the extreme.

The music at this rally was splendid. As the scouts marched in Mrs. S. R. Crawford rendered her immortal "Boy Scout March," composed by Scout Commissioner, M. H. F. Kinsey, local leader of the scouts.

The first musical number was a beautiful brass quartet, a section of the Boy Scout band, which are being trained under the skillful hand of Mr. Charles Brunner, of River City Band. The names of the boys who rendered the quartet were: Howard Lowry, Stanley McCoy, Percy Shaw and William Bennett. During the offering William Hopkins rendered a beautiful solo, followed with a cornet solo, "The Perfect Day" by Howard Lowry.

Boy Scouts spoke from most of the pulpits of our city churches in the morning, and made deep impressions on all who heard them.

The assignments were as follows: First Presbyterian, Corwin Knowles; Second Presbyterian, Howard Graf; Central Presbyterian, John Higgins; Trinity Sunday school, Howard Graf; Manly M. E., Cecil Tidd; First Baptist, Dennis Pfarr; Kendall Avenue Baptist, Arthur Doll, Jr.; Hutchins Street Baptist, Frank C. Davis; First Christian, Hobart Samson; Grandview Christian, Cary Williams; United Brethren, Darsie Hamilton; German Evangelical Sunday School, John Higgins; Fourth Street Methodist, Charles M. Baggs; Wesley Hall Mission, Carl Waller; Unity Sunday School, Darsie Hamilton; Y. M. C. A., Charles Baggs; Terminal Sunday school, Howard Graf.

In the afternoon a big rally of boys was held at the Fullerton Methodist church with a capacity house.

The speakers were Hobart Samson and Cecil Tidd. Altogether

it was the greatest event ever held by local Boy Scouts, and one which is bound to strengthen their great and growing movement.

We give below a few choice epigrams from the addresses of the boys:

Charles Baggs

A Scout learns that the highest success is in helping others and so he is taught many things that he can use in that way. The motto is "Do a good turn daily". He is taught to act quickly in emergencies. The training of a First Class Scout includes a knowledge of First Aid to the injured, how to bandage and stop the flow of blood, how to treat burns and wounds and a knowledge of what remedies to use in an emergency. Our objective can be easily discovered when I tell you that our Scout law teaches: Honor, kindness, loyalty, friendship, cheerfulness, courtesy, obedience, usefulness, thrift, cleanliness, bravery and reverence.

Carl Walker

The Scout Movement in America is an organization consisting of some 500,000 boys who stand for clean living and a better citizenship. Our objective can be easily discovered when I tell you that our Scout law teaches: Honor, kindness, loyalty, friendship, cheerfulness, courtesy, obedience, usefulness, thrift, cleanliness, bravery and reverence.

Secretary of State Bryan once made the remark that if all the millions spent in the erection and upkeep of Y. M. C. A. buildings only resulted in the saving of one boy it was money well spent. A tight wad lingered at the close of the lecture and asked if it wasn't an exaggeration or an overstatement to say that the saving of one boy was worth so much.

The great statesman replied: "No, not if he happened to be my boy." I am asking you people here this morning to lend your help and sympathy to a movement that is not only saving your own boy but hundreds of your neighbor's boys as well.

Cecil Tidd

I can understand why in this day of Christianity and education that a movement of this kind should meet with opposition. I am happy to say, however, that most of the "knockers" are people of inferior character themselves, but I am sorry to say the movement has met with some opposition by church members. I think the latter is mostly through ignorance of the workings of this movement. What a person should do before knocking this institution is to carefully weigh the good and bad principles. Then, if they find that the bad predominates over the good they are justified to knock and knock hard; but I assure you if this is investigated there cannot be one bad principle found. Friends, we wish you to investigate this movement and become better acquainted with it. Let's bring this home to ourselves: If this institution was making a better boy of you, it would be well spent.

John Higgins

The greatest investment you can make is in a boy. When our great movement was started in this city nearly two years ago, the late George M. Apel was approached for assistance. In this interview he made this remark: "I have stopped investing in businesses."

Engine Room Flooded.

The engine room in the basement of The Anderson Bros. Co.'s store was flooded Monday morning when a service pipe sprung a leak. The room is a little lower than the basement proper and not much damage resulted.

COMING BACK FOR THE ICE?

The work of the Juvenile Court has gradually diminished until now it has been reduced to a minimum and I am sure that the great work being done among the boys of this community by you and your co-workers is of lasting benefit and I am certain that if this work can be kept up in the future as it has been in the past, it will result in great and permanent good to this whole community.

With best wishes for your success, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

THOMAS C. BEATTY,

Probate and Juvenile Judge for Scioto County, Ohio.

iness enterprises, and henceforth intend to invest in young men and boys." He had the right view. An investment in the boy brings the biggest dividends, not only in this world but in eternity as well.

Arthur Doll

Scout membership means a clean life if a fellow lives up to his Scout oath and law. We emphasize clean habits; the proper care of the body, and clean sport. We preach this doctrine; if a fellow is crooked in his sports he will also be crooked in business when he grows up. Boy Scout supervision of athletics is a sure guarantee of clean athletics.

Frank Davis

My subject this morning is: "Is the Young Man Safe?" I contend that at the present day no young man is safe without the proper safe-guards thrown around him. These safe guards the Scout movement makes possible. We interest the boy in the good, wholesome, clean things of life, and thus divert his attention from those things which would blight his character, and make him a failure in life.

Corwin Knowles

If there is any one word in the English language the normal boy despises, it is the word "Don't". Our teachings in the Boy Scout Movement are of a positive nature. Instead of forever preaching the doctrine of "don't", we give the Scout something worth while to do.

Darsie Hamilton

The Boy Scout Movement in America stands first, last and always for Universal Peace. There is absolutely nothing military in our program. On every membership card which our Scouts carry in their pockets will be found this sentence in blazing letters: "The Boy Scout plan: not military, teaching however loyalty, patriotism, chivalry; advocating universal peace."

Carl Walker

The Scout Movement in America is an organization consisting of some 500,000 boys who stand for clean living and a better citizenship. Our objective can be easily discovered when I tell you that our Scout law teaches: Honor, kindness, loyalty, friendship, cheerfulness, courtesy, obedience, usefulness, thrift, cleanliness, bravery and reverence.

From now on the Art hall will be utilized as a town hall and every entertainment of a nature will be held there. The hall will also be rented for athletic events and entertainments. The churches are planning to hold union revival services there next fall.

Will Vote On School

Voters of Scioto township, Pike county, will vote on February 16th on a $15,000 bond issue proposition, the proceeds of which are to be used in the construction of a centralized school building, the first in Pike county. The school, which will encompass all modern conveniences, will probably be located at Wakefield. A similar election, held about two years ago, resulted in a tie vote.

WILL NOT RATIFY LONDON AGREEMENT

London, Feb. 8.—The declaration of London has not been ratified; it has not, therefore, the same authority as a universally ratified code of law, Neil Primrose, parliamentary under secretary for the foreign office, today told Admiral Lord Charles Beresford in 1905 and 1909.

More Trouble At New Waterworks

The mayor has notified the J. P. Witmer company of Buffalo, that the sump pump at the water works is not keeping the water out of the dry well and in addition looks around the easing, one of the centrifugal pumps having become broken. Part of a bearing and the packing glands were lost permitting so much water to enter that it can not be controlled.

The mayor also calls attention to the immediate necessity of having the New York Continental Jewel Filtration company install the coagulating plant and a style of valves that will retain water in the beds during the process of filtration.

Woman's Hip Is Broken In A Fall

While returning home from church Sunday evening about 6 o'clock, Mrs. Henry Gyor, of Eighth and Boundary streets, had the misfortune to fall on the slippery sidewalk on Eighth street opposite the Pure Milk Co. depot, sustaining a fractured hip. She was carried into the home of Mrs. John Staten nearby where the seriousness of her injury was discovered upon the arrival of the physician. She was taken home in the Lynn ambulance, where the fracture was reduced.

Alleged Elopement Causes Sensation

The Enquirer today had the following telegraph item:

Leesburg, O., Feb. 8.—Leesburg social circles today were greatly exercised over the alleged elopement of Prof. Charles P. Lewis and Miss Stella Hudson. Lewis, for six years was superintendent of schools here. He left last October to accept the superintendence of the New Vienna (O.) schools. Miss Hudson is the daughter of J. D. Hudson, of Leesburg, an attractive blonde, 20 years old, and a social favorite.

Both were active in church work, the professor only recently being choir leader in revival meetings held at New Vienna. Miss Hudson left here Friday, and is said to have told her parents she was going to visit a brother in Columbus, but instead went to Cincinnati, where she met Lewis. She notified her parents by special delivery letter today that they were on their way to Canada to be married.

Lewis has a wife and three small children. Yesterday he sent word, it is said, to a school director to give his wife the balance due him on his salary, as she was destitute. Lewis came from Piketon, Ohio, where he was engaged in the ministry, coming originally from Utah, where he was ordained a preacher.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, marriage, trouble, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 50. Residence A-690.

Dear Dolly—I should appreciate much if you would tell me what to do for my ferns? They are full of earth worms. I am afraid to transplant them before spring. I will await reply.

JULY TOP MATORN:
Make a weak solution of lime water and soak the earth about the roots every other day with this. It will kill worms and eggs, and not injure the roots. In fact, the lime is good fertilizer and corrects the acidity of the soil. A few applications should be sufficient to rid the soil of the worms. Do not let the lime water touch the leaves of the fern. It will leave a whitish stain upon them. Water the earth with it.

YOURS FOR PURE WATER:
The water from the new water works is just as good if not better than that from the old plant and will keep indefinitely in a cistern. But why use a cistern when you can get perfectly pure, clear water from the hydrant?

Dear Dolly—is it proper to take a man's hat or cane? Is it proper to assist a gentleman guest in putting on his overcoat?

MARGARET:

Do not fuss about a man's hat or cane. Let him place them on the rack and look out for them himself, and a man must struggle into his own overcoat unaided unless another man is there to assist him. A lady does not help him.

FULLERTON, Ky., Feb. 6.—Miss Dolly Wise.—Can you please tell me through your column in The Times if there is any loan company or individual in Portsmouth that will loan money on real estate in Kentucky? Orlie.

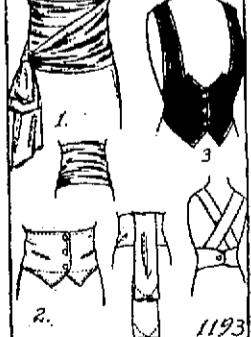

A FARMER BOY:

If there is any one in Portsmouth who wants to help this boy let me know at once.

DEAR DOLLY—I am a nice looking young man 27 years old and I have been paying respects to a woman that is lots older than I am, yet I did not think I was making love to her, so now she wants me to marry her. I do not love her well enough to marry her yet, so what shall I do?

THROUBLING WILDE:

Quit her of course and heaven'ter don't go with a girl steady unless you intend to marry her.

A WOMAN:

First stop, worrying, then massaging the wrinkles. Rub in the cream with a rotary motion; then, letting the little fingers moisten the nose, rub vigorously toward the temples for 20 strokes, each stroke carefully smoothing the forehead. Anoint with skin food before going to bed, massaging gently with the tips of the fingers. Do this every day.

If you are given permission by your mothers and do not shake with strangers while there. Say nothing, or if you do, say "I enjoyed it also."

DEAR DOLLY—We see there is talk of putting us alley women out of our homes. Do you think it is right when we haven't any money to live on streets? Some of our reputations are as good as some of those women who have asked the mayor to turn us out. Where will we go?

THE HEADACHE OF NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

A feeling as of a tight band about the head is often felt in addition to the pain of a headache that is caused by nervous exhaustion. Rest and a tonic for the blood and nerves will cause the headache to disappear in most cases.

The way to stop this sort of headache is to stop the cause of it. Overwork, worry and failure of the blood to properly nourish the nerves are the most common causes. Rest and a tonic for the blood and nerves will cure the headache to disappear in most cases.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an effective tonic for building up the blood and strengthening the nerves. They furnish just the elements that the blood needs to build up the nerves shattered by over-work, worry, over-exertion or excess. You cannot always rest from school, office or housework when circumstances require but you can always take a tonic that will maintain the strength of blood and nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are just the tonic required.

Mention this paper and we will send you a booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System" free. Address: Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Light And Power “Flickered Out”

Experts from the General Electric Company are in this city investigating the causes of the "let down" of the new turbine recently installed at the New Boston power house of the Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light Company, which was responsible for a complete suspension of the service during the busiest hours of Saturday evening.

Commercial lighting was off for about fifteen minutes, street car traffic was suspended thirty-five minutes, and the street lamps were off for over an hour. The suspension of service caused no end of annoyance to merchants and shoppers, while the business district resembled a deserted city.

Candles and coal oil lamps were brought into play at several places, which depended solely upon electricity for their lighting. The man-

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

Two splendid audiences greeted the appearance of Rev. Reugor of Carlyle, Ky., Sunday who occupied the pulpit both morning and evening. Rev. Brugor came up to advance notices—in fact, he delivered two powerful and convincing sermons and stamped himself as one of the strongest men who ever occupied the long pulpit. He is a rapid-fire speaker, hardly pausing for breath, and yet his enunciation is so perfect that not a word is lost to his auditors. He is a deep thinker getting down to the very bottom of things and presenting new thoughts, clothed in perfect language. Rev. Reugor was much pleased over his reception and was wonderfully impressed with the big, live Bible School. He was for five years pastor of the Central Christian church at Portland, Oregon, one of the strongest churches on the Pacific coast. It is hardly thought he would seriously consider a call to this place, although all those who heard him expressed themselves quite favorably and are sure he would prove a worthy successor to Rev. Crayton S. Brooks, who expects to sever his connection with the local church on March 14. Rev. Charles Oakley, of Mansfield, will occupy the pulpit at all services next Sunday.

Tuesday night is "stunt night" on the Boy Scout at the First Presbyterian church. All members of Troop One will meet at the First Christian church at 6:30 o'clock. The boys of this troop will be in charge of Earl Puckett, and the troop will march to the First Presbyterian church in a body, where reserved seats will be at their disposal.

The Camp Fire-Girls will meet at the church, Friday afternoon after school.

Section Three of the Women's Union will give an entertainment at the church Thursday evening. An excellent program has been arranged, and will no doubt be attended by a splendid audience. Some of the best talent in the city will participate in the entertainment. The program will appear in Tuesday's Times. No set price has been fixed upon for admission, it having been agreed to take a silver offering at the door.

Section No. 2 will meet at the church, Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Class No. 3 will meet with Mrs. Bricker, 1536 Gallia street, Friday evening, Feb. 12.

Section No. 4 will meet Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Gus Meade, 619 Boundary street. All members urged to be present.

Section No. 5 will meet with Mrs. John Ault, Summit street, Friday afternoon.

Section No. 3 of the Woman's Union will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Crabtree, 1523 Fifth street. A good attendance is desired.

Section One will meet at the church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The members of the choir are urged to be present Tuesday evening. Prof. Theo. Fitz is expected to arrive here at that time to begin his five weeks' work. Let every member of the choir be present, so as to receive the good of the first lesson.

Records Of Willard And Jack Johnson

A comparison of the ring records of Jack Johnson and Jess Willard who are scheduled to meet in battle for the world's heavyweight championship one month from today, shows the marked advantage of the title over the challenger in actual glove campaigning. Johnson began his pugilistic career in 1901 and since that year has figured in seventy-eight bouts for a total of 466 rounds. During this stretch of years the negro has won twenty-five contests by knockouts and twenty-seven by decisions. He also participated in twelve no-decision matches and seven draw bouts. In addition Johnson has won two battles as the result of his opponents' faults; lost one on his own foul; one by a knockout and three on adverse decisions by referees. SHUGRUE VS. WELSH

Joe Shugrue, the Jersey lightweight, will have a chance to prove his claim that he beat Freddie Welsh recently in New York, when they meet again in Madison Square Garden, New York, February 9 for a ten-round tilt. Leach Gross is going to fight three times within the next weeks and he is going to get $6,000 for each time he blithely hops in the ring. Pretty soft for some people.

Up at Huntington an effort will be made to have several of the leading business men of that city take a financial interest in the Ohio State team will likely be placed in that city.

There is no longer any doubt as to who is the best lightweight in the fighting game. James J. Corbett says that the honor goes to early hatted Charley White of Chicago.

2,000,000 MORE GERMANS ARE READY FOR WAR

LETTERS FROM EUROPE GIVE INSIDE FACTS ABOUT THE GREAT WAR

Four letters in one day from their native home in Frankenthal, Germany, was the rare treat received by John Zeisler, a well known veteran carpenter and wife, of Glover street, last week.

The letters, which were censored, came with patriotic utterances and bespeak the loyalty and unity of the German people in "Fighting for their very existence" and give many interesting sidelights in the present day conditions of that country.

Mrs. John Adam, niece of Mr.

Zeisler, writes that her son Ludwig, who has been at the front since August 7, was decorated with the iron cross for bravery displayed during the battle of Tanneville. For the past ten weeks he has been fighting in the trenches at Arras.

She tells of a brother, who is the father of three children, having been in the field for the past five months. While elting the sarcasm and heartaches the big war has caused, the sad Christmas with fathers and sons away, Mrs. Adam in eloquent words penises the courage of the imperial troops, thinks to whom their home and country is saved. She says with the outbreak of the war political parties and factional differences ceased to exist and the nation, man to man, rallied to the support of the Kaiser.

There are 2,000,000 volunteers ranging in age from 15 to 50 years, who have not yet shouldered a gun, she says.

Another relative, Friedrich Deck, writes that his nephew Jacob Seibert, aged 28 years, who had been in active service since August 2, after having participated in several engagements, was killed at Moerschingen in September. He leaves a wife and two children. Mr. Deck says his own son, who had never before seen army service, had participated in two severe engagements and at the third before Hollebekken he was wounded in the leg by shrapnel and has since been laid up in a pitchee in France that was converted into a hospital. He received many Christmas presents and sent back home pieces of the shell taken from his wound as souvenirs.

Frankenthal has a population of 29,000 of whom 5,000 men were called to the colors and to date 120 of these have met death on the field of honor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bush writes that her brother-in-law, Hubel, was killed November 4 and the saddest part of it all was that he never lived to see his baby born after he went to the front in defense of his country.

The letters all state that but for the great number of sick and wounded brought back from the front one would scarcely believe that the country was at war. All is quiet and serene and factories and work more plentiful and pay better than ever before, but provisions are high. Meat costs 3 mark or 25 cents per pound, potatoes 4 mark or one dollar per bushel, rye flour 38 mark or $9.50 per barrel, wheat flour 30 mark or $11 per barrel and soap 12½ per pound.

Scenes of people enjoyed trips across the backwaters on the various ferryboats while skiff and john boat riding was the day's diversion in the submerged parts of Slabtown. A city fire department crew continued pumping at Union street to hold down the overflow caused by the leaking valve there. This pumping had one good effect, city officials say, namely of keeping Union and Thompson streets open to travel and while many homes in that vicinity were surrounded by water none were flooded. Boys at the head of Second street amused themselves riding bicycles through the water.

The Front Street Baptist church lacked a foot of being flooded, but owing to the difficulty of reaching it services for the day were dispensed with. The Albert Gibbs grocery nearby was flooded and the water still reached the back yards of the John Reilly residence. Mrs. Louise Koenig's greenhouse and all Second street from Union to Waller street.

Rev. Powell's Sermon On Amusements Is The Cause Of Much Comment In The City

At the evening service at All Saints' church the Rev. E. Angier Powell, rector, addressed a large congregation on the subject of "Amusements."

The sermon has caused so much comment that the Times publishes the following synopsis of the sermon:

Recreation, said the Rector, is a necessary and natural part of the life of every man, woman and child. It must be co-related to the whole of life and governed by the same rules and canons of conduct which prescribe the nature of the home-life and the business life of the Christian. A Christian should bear in mind that he cannot conscientiously seek to divide his life into water-tight compartments as it were, and reserve his highest moral standards for his home and church life, a somewhat lower set of standards for his business life, and the lowest possible standards or no standards at all where his amusements came into question. He should remember that he ought to be a Christian always. Not merely on Sunday, but every day. Not merely in his home, but in his business and in his recreations.

The various opinions held by men on the vexed question of amusements, said the Rector, make up a widely varied philosophy of recreation.

Three Philosophies Of Recreation

Broadly speaking there were three philosophies of recreation. The first might be termed the Epicurean or Hakebian. It teaches that anything is permissible.

"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." "Fay ce que voudras." "On with the dance—let joy be unconfined." Whatever is in right."

The second might be called the Pessimistic and Puritanical. Nothing we desire to do is permissible.

The mere fact that we want to do something shows that it is wrong. All desire is sinful. Whatever is, is wrong. This philosophy teaches, if not directly, by implication at least, that to be miserable is the very core of all virtue and to be naturally and humanly happy is essentially sinful.

The third philosophy of recreation might be called the Christian and Rational.

It teaches that amusements and recreations which are not directly or designedly sinful, and which are participated in with a clear conscience, and with the desire for rest and change of environment for mind and body, and which involve no injury to others, are not only lawful for a Christian man but commendable and edifying. It is this third philosophy of recreation which correctly states the attitude which the vast majority of all baptized Christians assume and to which they have always adhered.

The Declaration of Independence, said the Rector, asserted no greater truth than the fact that the right to happiness is an unalienable one. And the new government was called upon to provide not only for the safety of the governed but for their happiness. No grander and nobler document than the Declaration of Independence was ever penned. Were those who signed it wrong when they subscribed to its sentiments?

Assert Right

To Be Miserable

There are those today who triumphantly assert the inalienable right of every man, woman and child to be miserable. Happiness is a crime with these people. In unmeasured language and with vulgar vehemence they indiscriminately condemn almost every form of recreation and amusement known to us today. They disavow, of course, the intention of opposing anyone in the pursuit of a legitimate happiness, but their ideas on the subject are so narrow and impossible of acceptance by the vast majority of people that they receive the endorsement of none but the most rabidly puritanical and bigoted section of the population.

Amongst Christians these people are in the minority and have ever been so. And being in a minority they do not fail to employ what is perhaps the most used weapon in the armory of a minority. Noise, the wholesale and unseasoning denunciation of the majority. Do not let me be misunderstood, said the speaker. I would not for one moment deny the right of the individual man to maintain such an altitude as his conscience may approve on the question of his amusements.

I do, however, deny the right of any man to measure the needs and lawful recreations of his fellows by the standard of his own private conscience.

Speaks For A Safe Platform

Surely there is room for a safe and sober platform upon which the Church may stand in relation to the amusements of its members. When Jefferson made the right to live embrace the right to the enjoyment of a reasonable liberty and the pursuit of happiness he was right in spite of all preachers and adherents of a morbidly puritanical gospel.

Not Intended To Be Vale of Tears

In spite of much preaching and teaching to the contrary, God did not intend this beautiful world to be a "vale of tears." He does not know, nor did He ever countenance the doctrine that we are to be patiently miserable here for a time in order that we may be gloriously happy in Heaven for eternity.

We refuse today to accept the once popular theory that God is directly responsible for plague, famine and pestilence, for battle, murder and sudden death, for fire and flood and earthquake.

When these terrible catastrophes overwhelm us we no longer charge them to the neglect of him who is the loving Father of all His children. Those who depict God in lurid colors as a revengeful and bloodthirsty tyrant do not even know Him.

And all who would fain set up narrow standards of amusements and recreations for God's people and would have us believe that almost everything the average man desires to do and enjoys doing is wrong, are very little better than those who depict God as a revengeful despot and seek to populate the heaven of the hereafter with cowardly souls who have practiced the morality and ethics of their narrow system of theology, not for any love they had for them, but through base and unreasonable fear of a cruel and repulsive material hell.

The extent to which the condemnation of perfectly innocent means of relaxation, recreation and amusement, is carried by almost all professional "evangelists," by many preachers of the gospel and by some Christians, is appalling in its perhaps unconscious wickedness, as it is wrong in principle and intemperate in expression.

Defends Certain Amusements

In every community of any size at all, people are called upon to endure the hardy, annual dinings against the theatre, the circus, the card table, the billiard parlor and the dance. Even the carefully censored and innocently enteraining moving picture show comes in for its share of unavoidable condemnation. We are told in harsh and strident tones that those who indulge in these amusements and recreations are not true Christians, that they are intimately to be deprived of all the joys of heaven and consigned for all eternity to the torments of that other place, which, strangely enough, figures so prominently in much of the realistic preaching of the age. And the average man may well exclaim "who then can be saved?"

"The Crucible" At Lyric Tomorrow

In the powerful and heart-gripping drama of "The Crucible," by Mark Lee Luther, the portrayal of a soul's ordeal in the melting-pot of suffering, from which fiery furnace it emerges unsullied, and strengthened by its agonies. Marguerite Clark plays the part of little Jean Bunshaw, at first hoyden and tomboy, unjustly condemned to a reformatory, who later triumphs over the shame of her imprisonment and the sordid corruption of her environment, returning good for evil to those who worked havoc with her life.

Jean Bunshaw, brought up by her father as nearly like a boy as possible, with the result that, when he dies, her mother and sister, quite primly different from the high-spirited, sincere and prudish Jean, misunderstand and dislike her thoroughly, and ill-treat her accordingly. Her sister Amelia, a sedate and self-righteous girl, magnifies all Jean's tapings, and eccentricities, until Mrs. Bunshaw believes Jean to be a perfect fiend and causes friends and neighbors to think the same. One day, at a picnic, a playful trick of Jean's enrages her mother and sister, and when they arrive home, Amelia nags and bullies Jean till she catches up a stick in a spirit of mischief, threatening to defend herself with it, if necessary. Amelia, alarmed, throws her hand up with a quick motion, and cuts herself on the stick. She runs screaming to her mother, declaring that Jean has attacked her. Her mother, believing that Jean has done it, scolds her, and Jean is rewarded by her long strong arm.

Moved to pity by the grief and anguish of the man's wife, the mayor after holding Will Johnson, a shoeworker, guilty of tapping the till of the New York Ice Cream company, Monday decided to not guilty and a rehearing of the case was set for Tuesday. Officer Jake Cooper said the men refused to give an account of themselves when he accosted them on the streets late Saturday night and when Raney struck at him with his mace.

Albert Raney and Arthur Dunkirk were fined $25 each for alleged resisting an officer but later decided to change their pleas to not guilty and a rehearing of the case was set for Tuesday. Officer Jake Cooper said the men refused to give an account of themselves when he accosted them on the streets late Saturday night and when Raney struck at him with his mace.

Peter Marsh, who was found in the Portsmouth Paving Brick Paving Block company's yards holding a loaded pistol, was fined $200 and costs. Half of the fine was remitted and unless paid Peter will be sent to the workhouse.

Claude Adkins, a veneer worker, who, according to the chief, was not only a boarder at J. E. Bett's home but had paid attention to Bett's wife, denied the allegation and the case was continued until Tuesday to give Bett an opportunity to be heard.

Albert Raney and Arthur Dunkirk were fined $25 each for alleged resisting an officer but later decided to change their pleas to not guilty and a rehearing of the case was set for Tuesday. Officer Jake Cooper said the men refused to give an account of themselves when he accosted them on the streets late Saturday night and when Raney struck at him with his mace.

Peter Marsh, who was found in the Portsmouth Paving Brick Paving Block company's yards holding a loaded pistol, was fined $200 and costs. Half of the fine was remitted and unless paid Peter will be sent to the workhouse.

Claude Adkins, a veneer worker, who, according to the chief, was not only a boarder at J. E. Bett's home but had paid attention to Bett's wife, denied the allegation and the case was continued until Tuesday to give Bett an opportunity to be heard.

Will Donley was fined $25 and costs for making bets at Leo Mullazavos' pool room while the case of Noah James, who pleaded not

Frank Craycroft, who pleaded guilty to stealing chickens from Charles Mafford and J. D. McKinney, colored, charged with bunting, were fined $10 each.

Archie Craft, Russell Robinson, Gerald Salvose, each drew $5 for intoxication. All were put to work on the streets.

TESTIMONY OF GIRL IS CAUSE OF MAN'S ARREST

Till Tapper Saved By Plea Of Wife

Moved to pity by the grief and anguish of the man's wife, the mayor after holding Will Johnson, a shoeworker, guilty of tapping the till of the New York Ice Cream company, Monday decided to change their pleas to not guilty and a rehearing of the case was set for Tuesday. Officer Jake Cooper said the men refused to give an account of themselves when he accosted them on the streets late Saturday night and when Raney struck at him with his mace.

WOMEN TAKE PART IN STRIKE DISORDERS

STORM GATES OF N. J. PLANT

Roosevelt, N. J., Feb. 8.—A crowd of angry women stormed the gates of the Liebig and Williams and Clark Fertilizer plants here today, where 19 strikers were shot by deputy sheriffs, Jan. 19 and administered a thorough beating to Elmer Osborne, chief engineer at the Liebig works and Frank Davis, a clerk.

Both men were rescued by special policemen, sworn in yesterday. The trouble started when some of the men attempted to go to work for $1.60 a day. This was the wage they received in the time of the strike, the previous wage having been $2.00 a day. The women leered and hooted the men going to work this morning and when Osborne and Davis appeared attacked them. One man among the crowd of women was arrested.

The companies operating the plants issued a notice yesterday to the effect that unless the men returned to work they would be discharged. Strike leaders said none of the strikers was among the men who went to work today.

RUMANIA FRONTIER VIOLATED BY AUSTRIA

Paris, Feb. 8.—Austrian troops have violated the Rumanian frontier near Turn Severin, the Journal informed in a dispatch from its Paris correspondent. The Austrians are reported to have fired on frontier guards who attempted to oppose their passage, and a furious fight followed.

Strong reinforcements came to the assistance of the Rumanians, and after a three hours' struggle the Austrians are reported to have been driven back across the line with a large number of injured.

If the Austrians had captured Turn Severin, the correspondent says, they would have had complete command of Vladovo, the only place in Serbia on the Danube permitting communication with Rumania.

The incident, which occurred several days ago, has not been followed up by either side, the Journal reported.

STATELY TOWER AT THE PANAMA EXPO

Washington, Feb. 8.—A death rate in 1913 of 14.1 per 1,000 of the estimated population in the registration area of the United States, compared with 13.8 per 1,000 in 1912, is shown in a report today by the census bureau. The number of deaths in the registration area containing about two-thirds of the population was approximately 890,948.

Washington state showed the lowest rate, being 8.5 per 1,000, while New Hampshire's was the highest, with 17.1. The lowest rate shown in 1913 by any of the fifty registration cities with populations of 100,000 or over in 1910 was that for Seattle, which was 8.4, while Memphis showed the highest with 20.8.

The average age at death for both sexes, from all causes combined, was 39.5; for males alone, 39.2; for females 40.6. Nearly 18 per cent of all deaths were of infants under one year of age, and more than 25 per cent were of children under five years.

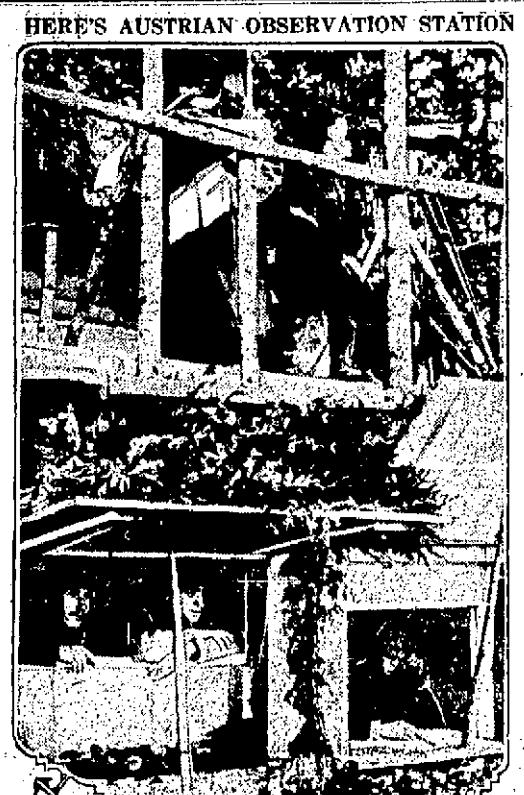

The death rate from tuberculosis declined from 149.5 per 100,000 population in 1912 to 147.6 in 1913. The rate from cancer rose from 62 per 100,000 in 1910 to 78.9 in 1913. The rate from suicides was 9.088, the rate being 15.5 per 100,000, compared with 16 per cent in 1912.

CONFERENCE RESUMED

Cleveland, Feb. 8.—Federal conciliators Hyatt Davis and Daniel J. Keefe and representatives of Eastern Ohio coal operators and miners' officials today resumed their joint conference in an effort to bring about a settlement of the strike which has caused the illness of 15,000 coal miners since the first of April last.

"DEAD" SON RETURNS

Marion, Ind., Feb. 8.—James Davis Fort, celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of his birth at the Friends Church, Marion yesterday was greeted by his son Lige, whom he believed dead for six years.

HERE'S AUSTRIAN OBSERVATION STATION

The "tree top" "observatories" of the Austrian army are elaborate affairs, carefully constructed and supported strongly enough to permit the rapid mounting of light machine guns. Many of them "observatories" are equipped with telephones connecting with other "observatories" as well as with the main body of the army. They are screened in such a manner with fir branches that it is almost impossible to locate them.

In the upper story of the one shown in the photo one of the men is seen tracing the movements of the enemy according to directions given by the man seated at a powerful field glass mounted on a tripod. In the lower story one of the lookouts is telephoning his observations to the main body of the army.

TREMENDOUS EFFORT IN THE EAST ATTRACTS ALL WAR INTEREST

London, Feb. 8.—In the realm of Hungary, but in Poland, in front of military interests all eyes today are Warsaw, the opponents appear still turned toward the eastern battle to be maneuvering each other's lines with a fierceness which recalls the first German invasion of Poland.

In spite of the desperate nature of the fighting in front of Warsaw, it is generally believed in England that the most critical action is developing in the Carpathians, where the reported Russian reverse will compromise the new campaign onward rush of the defenders of

Except for several minor attacks of the Germans on Nieport, the western line of battle evidently has enjoyed a quiet week-end. Air and sea operations also have been suspended during the past few days, London not even being thrilled by the usual Sunday rumors that Zeppelins were on their way to the British capital. Also there has been complete absence of any naval news.

INVESTIGATE REPORT THAT TWO AGED MEN WERE BURIED ALIVE

SHOOTS WIFE THEN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Yonkers, N. Y., Feb. 8.—To the story that eight feeble inmates of the German Odd Fellows' home here had been put to death because they were aged and required much attention, was added today the suggestion that two other inmates might have been buried alive while still under the influence of an anesthetic. It was believed that at least two of the bodies would be exhumed. The coroner's jury today began an investigation of this suggestion. There was little tangible for him to work on except reports found in the fears of the present inmates with whom he held a long talk yesterday.

The New York undertakers who took charge of the bodies were to be questioned as to what steps they had taken to make sure that life was extinct before burial.

FEARS WERE GROUNDLESS

Manila, Feb. 8.—Insular officials here characterize as groundless the fears of an insurrection at Cebu, which led to the patrolling of the streets. No arrests have been made and no documents seized. Rumors of impending trouble are declared to have been founded upon baseless reports.

Big Plant Resumes

Elizabeth, N. J., Feb. 8.—The assembling department, one of the largest at the Singer Sewing Machine works, has announced a return of all men on a full time schedule, beginning today. At the office of the management it was said that the entire plant will be back on the old schedule with in another month.

Early last fall about fifty per cent of the 9,000 employed there were laid off.

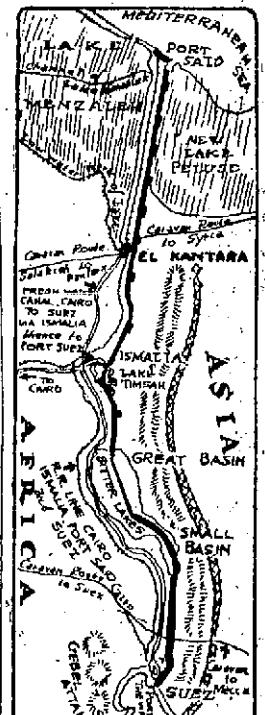

POPE'S PEACE PRAYER READ

London, Feb. 8.—The churches of Antwerp, Brussels and Malines were crowded yesterday at the services at which Pope Benedict's prayer for peace was read. Cardinal Mercier assisted in the services at Malines.

No attempt was made by the Military anywhere in Belgium to interfere with the devotions. In most parishes the German soldiers stationed there, who were Roman Catholic, devoutly participated in the services.

Contractors Sheridan and Kirk plan to resume work on the government dam three miles west of the city in the early spring. No outside work has been done for several months, but the draughting department has been kept busy. The first piece of work to be done next month will be some grading.

WHERE TURKS HOPE TO BECOME MASTERS

A big Turkish army is in the vicinity of the Suez canal, and has already fought several engagements with the British colonial troops guarding the famous waterway. The Turks, who are led by German generals, have been unsuccessful in their attacks thus far.

BRITISH SHIP SAILS UNDER U. S. FLAG

London, Feb. 8.—The Cunard steamer Lusitania crossed the Irish sea flying the American flag. The Lusitania sailed from New York Jan. 30, arriving at Liverpool yesterday.

An American passenger said the captain claimed the right to fly the American flag because he had neutral mails and neutral passengers on board.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Solicitation of the $500,000 fund to provide work for Chicago's unemployed began today under the direction of Prof. Charles R. Henderson of the University of Chicago; chairman of the Municipal Industrial commission. The fund is being raised as a result of an appeal made by Mayor Harrison to citizens on Saturday.

UNION YARDS RE-OPENED

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The Chicago Union Stock Yards, which have been under partial federal quarantine since June 29, because of a threatened outbreak of foot and mouth disease, were re-opened today for the interstate shipment of cattle. No cattle, however, may be held for more than 48 hours.

Records Of Willard And Jack Johnson

A comparison of the ring records of Jack Johnson and Jess Willard who are scheduled to meet in battle for the world's heavyweight championship one month from today, shows the marked advantage in actual glove combats of Johnson over the challenger in the list of ring figures. According to these tabulations, Willard's percentage of victories is .738 to Johnson's .692 and his percentage of knockouts .592 to the champion's .320.

In the class of opponents met, however, Johnson has decidedly the better record. Because of his lengthy ring career the names of a majority of the leading heavyweights of the past ten years are found linked with his in the annals of the sport. Almost without exception these same pugilists had been defeated or had retired from active boxing circles before the advent of Willard.

SCHEDULE COMMITTEE WILL MEET, IMPORTANT RULES TO BE ACTED UPON

New York, Feb. 8.—With the holding of a club to twenty-one players during the major portion of the pennant race and the proposals to deny the withdrawal of waivers once requested upon a player as well as the proposal to increase the number of games in the World's series, the winter months mark the season of the magnates' greatest proneness and this has been particularly true of the league executives and club owners since the world series. The struggle between organized and independent baseball interests has forced the player, in his active role well into the background. With the call for spring training and the announcement of schedules real baseball enthusiasm will begin to revive and the possibilities of the 1915 season outlined.

Before this situation in the national sport can be resolved, however, there are a number of important rulings, legal and executive which must be clarified. The schedule meeting of the American League has already been held and the National League will hold its final conference in this city next Tuesday. At this gathering the managers of the senior league will cast officiality upon the playing dates for the coming season also upon several resolutions and suggestions passed or considered at the meeting held early in December.

Chief among these is the rule limit-

Kiegler And Faust Go To Mat Tonight

One of the closest wrestling matches of the winter is looked forward to when Harry Faust and Charles Kiegler go to the mat in the Moose Club at Third and Washington streets. Both men have trained faithfully and lovers of this form of sport are figuring on seeing a rattling good bout. Faust has defeated some of the best mat artists in the country and so has Kiegler and for this reason their match should be a dandy.

New York, February 8.—Mike Gibbons is to tackle the heavyweights. The announcement made by Jimmy Johnson, manager for the Madison Square Garden Club, that Mike has agreed to box Edmund Smith has created quite a stir in boxing circles.

Here To See Wrestling Bout

Jack McMillan, a former Portsmouth boxer and boxer, is in the city busy renewing old acquaintances. Jack is here to attend the big wrestling match tonight. He is looking prosperous. Jack at the present time is connected with the circulation department of the Dayton News, owned by former Governor James M. Cox.

To Go After Heavyweights

New York, February 8.—Mike Gibbons is to tackle the heavyweights. The announcement made by Jimmy Johnson, manager for the Madison Square Garden Club, that Mike has agreed to box Edmund Smith has created quite a stir in boxing circles.

Anxious To Fight

Charles "Fighting" Kennedy is trying to induce several Columbus fighters to give him a match in the Capital City. If he succeeds quite a number of local fight fans would take in the bout. Kennedy is in training and is willing to meet any fighter in the state his weight.

PORSCMOUTH BOY MAKES GOOD

The Times has just been favorably with a school souvenir of the District of La Union division of Mindanao, Philippine Islands with the compliments of William F. Montavon, the division superintendent, who is a former Portsmouth young man. The souvenir gives strong evidence of the growth and advancement of the schools in the islands. Mr. Montavon has been engaged in educational work there for many years and success has crowned his efforts. Many of the present day native-Pilipino teachers were his pupils. Under the existing course of study, industrial work has a recognized place as one of the prominent factors which is destined to play a large part in making the Pilipinos useful citizens. The schools compare favorably with the best in the States.

FATHER GOEBEL JOINS "DO-IT-NOW" CAMPAIGN

Rev. Father T. A. Goebel, pastor of St. Mary's church, is one of the best persons in the city to join the "Do It Now Help Unemployed" campaign.

Father Goebel let it be known to his parishioners Sunday that while the improvements he has just contracted for at both the old and new parishes of the parish were originally planned for a year or sooner he had expected to have the same done immediately so as to provide work for poor people who are out of employment. The jobs are not very extensive but the priest figures that every little helps and his spirit is certainly to be commended.

Want Repairs Made.

The mayor has asked the service director to place a few loads of coarse gravel in the opening in Gallia street and Kendall avenue for its present condition it is dangerous to travel.

SHUGRUE VS. WELSH

Joe Shugrue, the Jersey lightweight, will have a chance to prove his claim that he beat Freddie Welsh recently in New York, when they clash again in Madison Square Garden, New York, February 9 for a ten-round tilt. Joe shad a good "shoving" last time, but he will have to travel some to repeat, for Welsh will be in the best shape this time and will try his best to win decisively over his rival.

SPORTLETS

Grand Rapids is still dickered for Irish Connell.

Ben Zimmer a Cincinnati amateur is anxious to catch on with the local league team.

McGraw says he is soon going to pull through a rattling good trade. Well kick in with it. All we heard this winter from McGraw's camp is near trades.

Leach Gross is going to fight three times within the next six weeks and he is going to get $6,000 for each time he definitely hops into the ring. Pretty soft for some people.

Leach Gross an effort will be made to have several of the leading business men of that city take a financial interest in the Ohio State team will likely be placed in that city.

There is no longer any doubt as to who is the best lightweight in the fielding game. James J. Corbett says that the honor goes to curly haired Charley White of Chicago.

Rev. Father T. Goebel made the gratifying announcement Sunday that the collection taken up a week ago for the benefit of boys of the parish who are studying for the priesthood far exceeded his expectations. The pastor had made an appeal for $115 while the collection amounted to $168 and that too despite the fact that the very inclement weather a week ago Sunday probably affected the attendance.

Repairs Needed.

The mayor has called the attention of the service department to the need of some temporary repairs at Italia and Young streets Saturday evening about 8 o'clock. The front of the machine was badly wrecked. The accident happened at the time all the street lights in the city were out. The wagon had picked up Officer Harding and his prisoner near Gas house and otherwise stoved up. Officer Goebel, Harding had the buck of his right hand battered and his prisoner, Jake Nelson, had his car severely cut when the city service wagon was "side-wiped" by street car No. 300 at Second and Madison streets Saturday evening about 8 o'clock. The front of the machine was badly wrecked. The impact jolted the wagon far to one side, throwing Harding and his prisoner to the floor. Marshall struck to his post though he was badly shaken up.

Bamboo to the machine consisted of a broken spring, the radiator demolished, an axle sprung, crank and windshield broken and a hole knocked in the cylinder. Dalton Bros.' auto truck was pressed into service to take Nelson to the city prison while the disabled machine was towed to the Priehard garage for repairs.

AN OLD COPY OF THE TIMES.

We received Saturday from C. M. Emory, of Stockdale, a copy of the Portsmouth Times, of November 1st, 1862, which was found among the effects of L. J. Dewey, of Stockdale, who died recently at the advanced age of 83 years. It is an interesting old paper, full of the passions and prejudices of that period. Scioto county had gone Democratic in the fall elections and The Times quotes approvingly an editorial from a Hillsboro paper congratulating it upon the result. The Hillsboro man said the leaders of the republican party in Scioto were "dead and dimmed as they should be and may the Lord have mercy on their souls. They are a precious set of scoundrels."

In one corner of the paper is a department headed "Facilities for Travel." It tells that the mail and express train on the Scioto & Hocking will leave each morning at 6 for Hamden, Marietta and Chillicothe. Accommodation at 2:10 p.m. for Jacksau and Hamden. The stage coach for Waverly, Chillicothe, Circleville and Columbus leaves every morning at 5 o'clock from the Biggs House corner. The mail packet Boston leaves with mail and express for Cincinnati and way points every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 11 a.m.

One of the advertisements was an announcement that Horace Lee and Horace L. Chapman had dissolved partnership in the lumber business and that Mr. Lee would continue the business. Mr. Chapman is now living at Columbus. In the same paper is Mr. Chapman's announcement that he is a notary public and will draw deeds, mortgages, mechanics liens, etc., neatly and with dispatch and that he has taken desk room with Moore & Johnson, near the post office on Second street.

In another advertisement C. Ludgate announces that he is a fashionable barber and hair dresser who will wait on ladies at their homes and who always carries a full line of hair tonics, dyes, oils, etc.

Comment is also made that apples are for sale at 50 cents a barrel and that potatoes can be had for One Dollar per barrel. Eggs are 8 cents a dozen, sugar 12 and 14 cents a pound, wheat $1 and $1.10, corn 38 and 40 cents a bushel, coffee 28 cents and salt $4 a barrel. Coal was 12 to 16 cents a bushel delivered, butter 15 and 20 cents, beef and pork each $3 per hundred.

IS SLATED FOR A JOB.

By the grapevine wireless route comes the news from Columbus that former Sheriff John Eckhart is slated to be deputy warden of the Ohio penitentiary when that institution is decentralized by Governor Willis for the purpose of ousting Warden Thomas and his assistants out of their jobs. It's about time that somebody down here landed a job or the G. O. P. leaders will bust a hamstring. Up to date Pike county, Democratic at that, has landed all the places given out in the Sixth district.

THE FLOWER SEED HABIT.

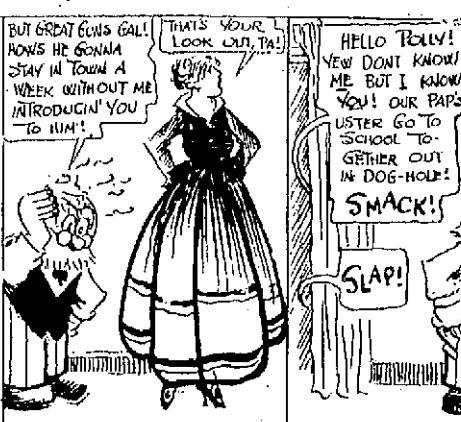

Some kind congressman sent a bag of flower seeds to the editor of the Huntington Herald-Dispatch and the recipient immediately set up a loud plan for somebody to give him a garden in which to plant the seeds. And aint the flower seed habit, he had this to say:

"How fares the virtuous householder? How is it with the beloved constituent. Is he provided, or unprovided? Is he deemed worthy, or unworthy? Is he remembered, or unremembered? Has he wherewithal to sow, or doth he lack? Is the joy of the season at his feet, or is it far off? These questions pertain. They are attached, as it were. The hour of the distribution of congressional garden seeds is at hand. Crisp, rattling packages bearing the stately signature of a senator of the United States have come to us. Our heart throbs with the delight of expectancy. Appreciation beams in the editorial countenance. Seeds, seeds, everywhere, but not a garden in which to plant 'em. But it's fine to be remembered. And we can dream. Yea verily. In ephemeral vestments, borne on the wings of fancy, we can tread elysian realms, calm and peaceful as pre-reptilian Eden, marking pathways bordered by freshly blooming beds of sweet peas, dahlias, japonicas, begonias, nasturtiums, hollyhocks, sun flowers, honeysuckles and wild thyme. And what matter if we wake to find but a few packages of unquenched and unresponsive seeds! A dream of beauty is a vision and a state of mind. We will still have had our dream. For which, senator, our thanks."

"IF WE ONLY HAD THE TIME."

What great things we would do if only we had the time! We would study music, or learn stenography, or write a book; we'd find out about this, look up that; answer that long past due letter, go to see the neglected cousin, aunt or grandmother—we would all of us do some of those and some of us all of them if we only "had the time." How many of our failures and shortcomings do we shroud in that excuse about not having the time. When we fail to post that letter, when we fail to call up somebody as promised, when we fail to do this errand or that favor "we didn't have the time" glides easily and speciously out of our mouths. How many heartaches has it caused and how many failures?

Consider the poets in the embryo who have not "had the time" to develop their art to a proper expression; or the artists who "have not had the time" to study the technique necessary to the painting of a great picture; or the dramatist who fails a little short of being successful because he has not had the time to learn the essentials of his craft. It is a long list that could be extended indefinitely to the business man, who makes a failure of his enterprise because he has not the time to give to it, or the brick mason who loses his job because he never had the time to learn his trade properly.

It is a convenient excuse which we all use for failures, large or small. And, oddly enough, the busiest man is the man who uses it least. The number of men of affairs who find time to study French, play golf, grow roses and read the newspapers is legion, while the whittler in the grocery store never has had the time to learn to read. One road to success seems to be to "take the time." —Delaware Journal-Herald.

WHY NOT GIVE PROTECTION?

It really looks as though the city ought to seriously consider the adoption of some measures for the protection of the people living on Mill and Front streets from being flooded out by ordinary floods in the Ohio. In the present instance a three foot embankment would have protected most of those who had to move on account of the flood. Why not build a stout dirt levee, if cement is too expensive, and protect this section of the city to a 50 or 58 foot level. It could be easily done and much suffering saved to people who can least afford to stand the expense of moving.

To a Future Son-in-Law

You're comin' into this family in another month or so,

An' I like your looks an' I like your style, an' I'm glad that you're her beau,

But I wasn't much fit fer talkin' the night when you came to me

An' I asked if you two could marry, a fule you could plainly see,

Now I've done some real hard thinkin' since then, an' I want to say

A few of the thoughts that a Father thinks when he's givin' his girl away.

Square in your eyes I'm lookin', we're talkin' an' man to man,

I'm trustin' you with the greatest trust that ever a mortal emu,

She is the babe I've cherished, the girl that I've guarded long,

An' I've kept her, winter an' summer, from trouble an' want an' wrong,

An' never a tear has wet her eyes, but when I have brushed it back,

An' never a burden's come her way, but what I have borne the pack,

Now this is the past of honor you've asked, an' I've given you,

An' I'm tellin' you what its duties are, an' what you will have to do,

I don't care a thing for money, an' I never shall ask for fame,

For all the luxuries man can give won't pay for a tainted name,

Arm in arm in the sunshine, an' arm in arm in the rain,

is the way you two must travel, an' share in each other's pain.

All that I'm askin' of you is always be kind to her, Don't ever cause her to sit an' wish for the man that she thought you were; Be good to my little daughter, shield her whence'er you can, Then nothing that happens will matter. I'm talkin' as man to man,

Share with her all your sunshine, share with her all the rain, Then whatever the future has in store you'll never hear her complain.

Don't go astray for money, don't barter her for fame.

Stay poor if you must, but faithful, an' honestly play the game.

Climb, if you can, to riches, an' rise to a higher life,

But take never a step that leads you away from your trusting wife,

Do this an' you'll make her happy, do less an' she'll never be,

Though you dress her in silks and lace an' deck her with jewels, —Edgar A. Guest in the Detroit Free Press.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded; streaked or gray; also ends dandruff; healing scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 60 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell you that darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy, and you look year younger.

2,000,000 MORE GERMANS ARE READY FOR WAR

LETTERS FROM EUROPE GIVE INSIDE FACTS ABOUT THE GREAT WAR

Four letters in one day from their native home in Frankenthal, Germany, was the rare treat received by John Zeisler, a well known veteran carpenter and wife, of Glover street, last week. The letters, which were censored, item with patriotic utterances and bespeak the loyalty and unity of the German people in "fighting for their very existence" and give many interesting sidelights in the present day conditions of that country.

Mrs. John Adam, a niece of Mr. Zeisler, writes that her son Ludwig, who has been at the front since August 7, was decorated with the iron cross for bravery displayed during the battle of Maneville. For the past ten weeks he has been fighting in the trenches at Arras.

She tells of a brother, who is the father of three children, having been in the field for the past five months. While citing the horrors and heartaches the big war has caused, the sad Christmas with fathers and sons away, Mrs. Adam in eloquent words praises the courage of the imperial troops, thanks to whom their home and country is saved. She says with the outbreak of the war political parties and factional differences ceased to exist and the nation, man to man, rallied to the support of the Kaiser.

There are 2,000 volunteers ranging in age from 15 to 50 years, who have not yet shouldered a gun, she says. Another relative, Friedrich Deck, writes that his nephew Jacob Scheitel, aged 28 years, who had been in active service since August 2, after having participated in several engagements, was killed at Moersingen in September. He leaves a wife and two children. Mr. Deck says his own son, who had never before seen army service, had participated in two severe engagements and at the third before Hollebekken he was wounded in the leg by shrapnel and has since been laid up in a palace in France that was converted into a hospital. He received many Christmas presents and sent back home pieces of the shell taken from his wound as souvenirs.

Frankenthal has a population of 20,000 of whom 5,000 men were called to the colors and to date 120 of these have met death on the field of honor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bush writes that her brother-in-law, Labat, was killed November 4 and the saddest part of it all was that he never lived to see his baby born after he went to the front in defense of his country.

The letters all state that but for the great number of sick and wounded brought back from the front one would scarcely believe that the country was at war. All a quiet and serene and factories and work more plentiful and pay better than ever before, but provisions are high. Meat costs a mark or 25 cents per pound, potatoes 4 mark or one dollar per bushel, rye flour 35 mark or $9.50 per barrel, wheat flour 60 mark or $15 per barrel and soap 12½¢ per pound. There is coal oil famine and people are obliged to burn candles. All are hoping and praying for peace and yet declare there must be no backward movement for Germany which has never been crushed and never will.

WOMAN WHO IS ACCUSED OF INCENDIARISM IS TOO ILL TO FACE THE CHARGE

Unable to appear in police court for a hearing Monday morning because of illness, the preliminary hearings of Mrs. Peter Cassidy and daughter, Miss Ina, who are charged with setting fire to their home to collect $700 insurance, was deferred Monday. Mrs. Cassidy was taken quite ill Monday morning and required the services of a physician. affidavits charging Mrs. Cassidy and daughter with maliciously setting fire to their home were sworn to in Mayor Erick's court Monday morning by Fire Marshal Ed Donovan. Mr. Donovan was in conference with Prosecuting Attorney Joseph J. Micklethwait this morning and promised Mr. Donovan that he would lay the Cassidy charges before the grand jury Tuesday.

After thoroughly inspecting the Cassidy home, a two-story frame structure at 822 Murray street, Deputy Fire Marshals Edward Donovan and Charles Miller were convinced that the fire was of incendiary origin and that the flames could not have started from one room to another as Mrs. Cassidy first stated, because the woodwork and wallpaper in each room were not scorched, they succeeded in learning Saturday afternoon that Mrs. Cassidy and four daughters, Ina, Lida, Lillian and Ruby had gone to the home of Mrs. Cassidy's oldest daughter, Mrs. Maud Calvert, of 102 Rhodes avenue, New Boston. Confronted with the real facts in the case, Mrs. Cassidy and daughter Ina showed signs of weakening when the fire marshals began to weave a chain of evidence around them, but for quite a while they stoutly denied their innocence and insisted that they had no idea how the fire started. But the officials were persistent, and, aided by a tip given them earlier in the day by Ollie Cassidy, aged 17, Donovan and Miller "sweated" Mrs. Cassidy and daughter for almost an hour before they finally broke down and admitted they set fire to the Davenport in the front room down-stairs and to the three beds upstairs. It was then that Mrs. Cassidy was literally torn from the side of her three-year-old daughter, Ruby, and accompanied by her daughter, Ina, they were brought to this city by Deputy Fire Marshals Donovan and Miller.

Mrs. Cassidy, who has reddish brown hair, and who is about 40 years old, did not break down until Sheriff Smith started to the county jail with her and her daughter. It was then that they broke down and wept for some time. Mr. Cassidy told Sheriff Smith that he had been sending money to his wife right along and that his son was working and that he could not understand what possessed his wife and daughter to set fire to their home. Mr. Cassidy is a carpenter and is a hard-working, industrious man.

Gentlemen in tall hats and white smocks were recently seen sweeping a clean pathway from Whistler's hall to the old church in Upper Thames street, London, England. The Vicars' company had elected a new master, and it is their ancient custom to sweep him a clean pathway through the dusty city in these quaint costumes.

Clothing On Fire

Clothing in a closet of J. N. Bevins' home at 2118 Eighteenth street ignited from a match which one of the family had lit to aid in a search for an article Saturday, Ollie Cassidy approached them and asked what they were doing. When questioned by the officials they made some rather dangerous admissions, and from that time on, the officials felt certain that the fire resulted from incendiarism.

The fact that Mrs. Cassidy and daughter had packed two trunks full of wearing apparel and that one of them was controlled manner, told them contained most of the clothes they had procured five cents of their boarder, Taylor Henson, worth of gasoline on Wednesday and that they were moved down

J. E. Cross Picks Plum In Shape Of $2,500 State Job

J. E. Cross, formerly editor of the Adams County Record and for the past five months one of the editors of the Morning Star, has been signally honored by Governor Willis by being appointed supervisor of state public printing. The position carries a salary of $2,500 a year and control of the public printing department of the state.

won out over a field of applicants that embraced most of the editors of Republican papers in the state and his success is due to his own record as a party worker and as a citizen, which secured him a splendid line of endorsements. Mr. Cross is also an old time friend of Gov. Willis and he has served on the state executive and central committees of his party. His long activity in Republican ranks in the old Tenth district brought him a prestige and a strength that was hard to overcome, and which nearly landed him a winner. Mr. Cross is well fitted for the position. He understands the printing business from the ground up, and is a tireless worker. He should make a fine record in the office. His many friends in this section of the state will rejoice over his appointment and he will go into office followed by their best wishes. Mr. Cross also is in receipt of many telegrams from friends over the state, among them being Frank Harper, present occupant of the office, W. A. Willey, editor of the Engineer, J. W. Jones, superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb hospital at Columbus, Hy. D. Davis, of Cleveland, Congressman R. M. Switzer, Former Senator J. B. Foraker and others.

Mr. Cross is the first Republican in Scioto county, of which he has been a resident for the past four months, to land a major position under the new Republican administration.

BUSINESS MEN ARE OPTIMISTIC SAYS MR. BRYAN

"It was one of the best meetings of the kind I ever attended. Everybody had on their boasting clothes, and the general tone was most favorable impression. He talked along same and sensible lines and expressed himself freely about business conditions as they exist in this country."

Other speakers who addressed the delegates were Secretary of State Wm. J. Bryan, Senator Thaddeus Barton and Secretary of Treasury McAdoo. The meeting was concluded with a banquet.

"Each speaker was hopeful for the future and expressed themselves as being confident that business would slowly but surely be returned to normal conditions, because the industrial atmosphere has begun to clear up," said Mr. Bryan today.

Well Known Waverly Horseman Is Dead

Local friends of George Davis, well-known horseman of Waverly, will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred at his home in Waverly Saturday evening. Intestinal trouble, caused by eating a large number of walnuts the Sunday previous, was responsible for his sudden demise. One week before his death he was in perfect health, and his passing away was a terrible shock to his relatives and friends.

At the time of his last illness Davis was employed as livery stable in the livery barn of Clarence Vatali.

Experts from the General Electric Company are in this city investigating the causes of the "let down" of the new turbine recently installed at the New Boston power house of the Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light Company, which was responsible for a complete suspension of the service during the busiest hours of Saturday evening.

Commercial lighting was off for about fifteen minutes, street car traffic was suspended thirty-five minutes, and the street lamps were off for over an hour. The suspension of service caused an end of an annoyance to merchants and shoppers, while the business district resembled a deserted city.

Candles and coal oil lamps were brought into play at several places, which depended solely upon electricity for their lighting. The management of the Sun Theatre in the Play House billiard parlor us-
